

STAKEHOLDER CHECKLIST

This checklist serves as starting point for identifying stakeholders in your community. This checklist does not represent all of the potential stakeholders that are present in a community but each Community Healthy Collaboratives should consider connecting and building relationships with the stakeholders listed below.

GOVERNMENT

- City and County governments
- Council of governments
- Elected Officials
- Law Enforcement
- Housing Departments
- Health Departments
- Public Librarians
- Health and Human Services Office

FOOD AND HUNGER

- Food Banks
- Food Pantries
- Child Feeding programs
- Food recovery programs
- Adult feeding programs
- Meal delivery services
- Farmers and farmers markets
- Adult feeding programs
- Women, Infant, and Children (WIC) offices
- SNAP enrollment agencies
- Food systems (distributors, retailers, restaurants, etc.)

HEALTH

- Local Health Clinics
- Hospitals
- Doctors/doctors associations
- Nursing associations
- Health collaboratives/coalitions

NON PROFITS

- Foundations
- Child/youth family services
- Community Organizations
- Faith-based organizations
- Disability services
- Immigration/refugee services
- Homeless services

EDUCATION

- Texas Education Agency (TEA)
- Universities/ community colleges
- School District Personnel
- After School Programs
- Head Start/Early Start
- School Health Advisory Councils (SHACS)
- Parent Teacher Association (PTAs)

BUSINESSES

- Restaurants
- Banks
- Gyms/Fitness Centers
- Grocery Stores
- Chamber of Commerce
- Locally-owned businesses